

The point of Dyads and Conscious Communication is to come into conscious union with the truth of who you are - another - love - or life. In this job you and your choices are your engine and communications is your load. The engine provides you with power - you tell what comes up to the other - and that is communication.

If you have not done Dyad work before you are most welcome and Please come 30 mins early (6:30pm) to receive teaching of how to do Dyads

Communication Dyads: Dyad refers to the power of two – in this case, the clarifying power of two people honestly and openly communicating. Communication dyads are a structured, formal practice that facilitates rapid deepening of awareness, opening of mind, clarification of old beliefs, and resolution of stored emotions.
